

We now have a CMC corporate account set up at the new Movement Climbing + Fitness gym in Boulder.

To join the Movement under the CMC corporate account, you'll need to take your CMC membership card with you. You may walk in at any time now and sign up. Contact Anne Worley-Moelter for assistance, if needed.

Here's the corporate rate options:

- 1-month paid-in-full: $56 (non-corporate is $75)
- 1-year paid-in-full: $540 (non-corporate is $720)
- Monthly EFT: $47/month, $75 sign-up fee, no contract or minimum time required (non-corporate is $62/month)

We're still working with the Movement to have either a CMC or non-profit day (with the Access Fund, American Alpine Club, etc) in early November '09 where the EFT sign-up fee would be reduced or waived for that one day. An announcement will be made in the weekly GPS e-newsletter.

A couple of other things:

- If you'd like to try out climbing at the Movement, your 1st visit costs $10.
OR....
- Each Movement member may bring one guest in per month to climb free-of-charge. The guest must be someone who's never climbed there before.

For the other amenities and classes at the Movement, see their website at www.movementboulder.com.
