Happy Thanksgiving from the Boulder CMC!

Annual Dinner Recap

This year's dinner went off without a hitch.

Gary Johnston, the chair of the Annual Dinner Committee, deserves full credit for pulling together volunteers and keeping everyone organized. Carrie Simon and Kahle Toothill helped with marketing, soliciting donated beverages from Upslope Brewing and making the very important contact with Pemba Sherpa, owner of the Sherpa Restaurant and the trekking and mountain guiding service, Sherpa Ascent International.

After enjoying Nepalese cuisine catered by Pemba Sherpa, Rick Casey kicked off the Annual Meeting, recognizing everyone for their hard work the past year. He also spoke about the tumultuous year the group has had, from moving clubroom locations on short notice to vacancies on the Council.

In the end, the Council made clear to the audience that the Boulder Group is struggling with a lack of volunteers helping with Council, the schools and with trips. Most critically, there are openings on the Council for Secretary and Treasurer, both key positions. If you would like to volunteer for either of these, please contact Gary Johnston at chair@cmcboulder.org.
